Main advantages the company could offer to a potential partner

The company, set up in 1972, started as a small vehicle service workshop. In the 80's, the productions of the first spare parts was started (motor-bicycle's engine cylinders). Continuous development of the company as well as investment in the modern technologies allowed the company to introduce combustion engine pistons into production. Nowadays, the company has a wide range of products on offer for customers, starting from motorcycle spare parts, through agriculture machines parts to pistons for heavy farm tractors. In 2004 company received the ISO 9001:2000 certificate.
